SECRETARY WINDOM SUDDENLY EXPIRES AT DELMONICO'S IN NEW YORK CITY

The Sad Event Occurs at the Board of Trade Banquet

PRESIDENT HARRISON AND HIS CABINET SHOCKED BY THE NEWS.

Great Grief of the Secretary's Family—
Mrs. Windom at a Reception When the Startling Intelligence Came—Both Houses of Congress Adjourn—Action of the Treasury Department—The Life

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Hon. William Windom, Secretary of the Treasury, died last night at a banquet under the most tragic circumstances. The bursts of applause which had welcomed his speech had hardly died away when Mr. Windom fell back in his chair with a gasp of pain.

It was at the annual banquet of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation. Two hundred and fifty guests, comprising the leading business men and politicians of the country, were assembled in the dining room at Delmonico's. Secretary

Windom was the first speaker and he

hon. William Windom gave a clear and precise statement of his views on financial affairs. He prepared manuscript, branching off occasionally with witty remarks and bright comments which enlivened the speech. Once or twice he stopped to request that the applause be omitted, as he was desirous of finishing his remarks. He always had a word to say by way of a chance. His speech, his manner and his appearance all indicated the soundest health and the clearest intellect, and nothing was wanting to make the awful result of the stroke to which he was to follow so soon.

THE END.

At 10 o'clock or a few minutes before 11 he concluded his remarks with the words: "I Give up direct and ample transportation facilities under the American flag and controlled by American capital, and in return I give you a large quantity, an international bank to facilitate exchange, and a system of reciprocity carefully adjusted to the interests of the world. I will let our foreign commerce again invade every sea, but every American citizen will be quickened and aroused by the feeling that the world is passing during prosperity."

Secretary Windom resumed his seat between Secretary Tracy and President Armstrong. Show Judge William H. Arnoux rose to his feet and announced ex-Secretary of State William H. Taft as the next speaker. In introducing Mr. Bayard Judge Arnoux prefaced his remarks by relating an incident which occurred when Mr. Bayard was Secretary of State. He said that he had been called with a letter which had been very unserviceable. The meritment following upon the letter was so great that the speaker scarcely subsided when all attention was turned toward the seat of Secretary Windom, who gasped aloud and slipped back upon his chair. He then turned in the direction followed and some one cried "water! water!" Secretary Taft dashed a goblet full in Mr. Windom's face and judge Arnoux cried "water! water!"

The guests took their places. Mr. Windom's face was in a moment and set as if in intense pain. In a while more he was taken to his room. He was called for. There were three in the company who immediately came to Mr. Windom and carried him to an adjoining room and laid him upon a table. Here the physicians did all that medical skill could do to revive the prostrate man, but all efforts were unavailing. His necktie and collar were removed and the clothing about the upper part of his body taken off. Stimulants were applied and artificial respiration tried, but failed to revive him. Dr. Whitney held one hand and Dr. Robinson the other. Both tried to find an indication of pulsation. The heart beats were watched for, but no signs of life could be found.

A SAD ANNOUNCEMENT.

Secretary Tracy, Collector Erhardt and Attorney General H. W. Windom, were all present, waiting for an encouraging word from the physicians, but it never came. Within a few minutes they had the painful duty of pronouncing the death of the patient. The hall that Mr. Windom had passed away without uttering a word after the closing sentences of his speech. Judge Arnoux received the body at 10:15 o'clock, not half an hour after Mr. Windom had spoken, the guests went away.

This dinner of the New York Board of Trade was the first of a series of banquets of a notable gathering of distinguished officials and politicians, and represented all phases of political life, as well as to a very large extent the business and mercantile life in this and other sections of the country connected with trade and transportation. The Republicans were represented by Messrs. F. Tracy, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Hon. Wm. Windom; Attorney-General H. H.

Democracy was represented by the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, Wm. Steinway, the Hon. J. A. Cunningham, The President of the U. S. and Andrew Snow, welcomed a notable collection of New York business men. The six tables were respectively headed by: Erasmus Wiman, John McKerson, Jr., Wm. H. Webb, Jordan L. Mott, Oscar S. Straus, and Seth E. Thomas. Among the guests were F. B. Thurber, Andrew Fisher, Wm. H. Harrison, Stevenson Taylor, Harrison, Gilchrist, Henry Mallard and.

chably representation of New York merchants. Nova Scotia was represented by the Hon. J. W. Longley, and Canada by Hon. Wilfred Laurier. The Rev. B. Parker Morgan, D. D., invoked the divine blessing on the banquet, which was in ten courses and occupied about two hours, at the end of which time the President introduced, as the toast-master of the evening, ex-Judge Amoux, and the first toast was "The Hon. J. W. Longley, M. P., Secretary of the Treasury, whose toast was: "Our Country's Prosperity Dependent Upon Instruments of Commerce."

SECRETARY TRACY'S STATEMENT.

Secretary Tracy, who had accompanied Secretary Windom from Washington on the 10 o'clock train yesterday morning said that he had been with him all day and had not noticed any signs of failing health. A few days ago he had felt a slight attack of heart disease, but it was only for a moment. He ate sparingly at the dinner but never mentioned any feeling of ill health.

The news of Mr. Windom's death was immediately sent to Mr. James B. Colgate of this city, who arrived in a few minutes. Dispatches were sent to the President and to Mrs. Windom, who with her two daughters

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

PREPARING FOR THE INSTALLATION OF ST. MARK'S NEW PASTOR.

The Lafayette Park Presbyterian Church secures a fine choir—hop to be given by St. Leo's Sodality—the Lenten season—Notes.

Four years ago the members of St. Mark's Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church purchased a lot on the southwest corner of Washington and Vandewater avenues, 15 feet front on Washington by 146 on Delmar avenue, placing the chapel in rear of the lot, leaving ample room in front to build the church proper. The church, in the past few months, has been without a pastor. Two weeks ago, they called the Rev. John Wilkinson, and he has accepted the rectory and will assume the care of the parish on Feb. 1.

Mr. Wilkinson graduated from the Jubilee College, Illinois, and from the General Theological Seminary in New York City. His deaconship was passed in St. Luke's Parish, Dixon, Ill. In 1881 he became priest in charge of the Cathedral Church of St. Peter and Paul, Chicago, where he later Bishop Whitehouse. From Chicago he went to Milwaukee and took charge of the parish of St. James, and secured the erection of the beautiful gothic church for that parish—the church edifice of stone ever built in Milwaukee. Afterwards he became rector of Grace Church, Madison, Wis., remaining until 1887, when on account of long continued illness in his many friends by his courteous deportment and earnest efforts. Taking his initial efforts in this city as a criterion it is safe to say that he will soon make Westminster one of the leading congregations in the Presbyterian denomination in St. Louis. Rev. S. F. Wishart is assisting the doctor during the revival services.

The Baptist Sanitarium.

The principal event in Baptist circles during the past week was the announcement that the Sanitarium was now free from debt. The mortgage has been taken up and the title to the property is now vested solely with the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium Association. It is the fervent desire of those interested to erect a fine building upon the present site, which is a very fine one for such an institution. They are extensive, and with proper care can be made most beautiful.

The money to build the structure is now being raised by subscription, and the responses thus far have been very liberal. There has been a sufficient sum pledged at the present time to guarantee success, and it is hoped that the receipts will be so liberal that a building, second to none of its character in the country can be erected.

St. Leo's Sodality.

The Young Men's and Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Leo's Parish will give a select hop on Monday evening, Feb. 9, in the unfinished church building of St. Leo's, corner Twenty-third and Mulanphy streets. As this is the first hop given by the two sodalities since being organized, it is their intention to make it a memorable one in every respect. The committee have the hop in charge will see that every one who attends will spend a pleasant evening. It is expected that the many friends of the sodalities will crowd the building on this occasion. The society of this building on this occasion. The society of this building on this occasion.

parish is in a very prosperous condition. The membership is at the present time very good and is rapidly increasing.

Denies that a Sale Has Been Made.

The published report that St. Mary's Catholic Church at Third and Patriot streets has been sold is strenuously denied by the parish priest, Father Wm. Faerber. The consent of the Archbishop to the sale has been secured, but that a sale has been made and that a new church building will be erected at Tenth street and Chouteau avenue is a mistake. The only thing to be done to consummate the move at present is the finding of a purchaser. They have been looking for one for nearly two years ago, and was first placed in charge of Father Fischer. The move is made necessary by the removal of a great majority of the parishioners and their association with other congregations.

Will Soon Be Completed.

The Grand Avenue Baptist Church, which has been in course of erection for some time, has been put under roof, and the first services were held there last Sunday, when Rev. W. A. Matthews of Shurtleff College preached both in the forenoon and evening. This church is a rather pretty structure, and when finished will be a fine edifice for the Baptists who reside in the immediate neighborhood. They have been looking for one for nearly two years ago, and was first placed in charge of Father Fischer. The move is made necessary by the removal of a great majority of the parishioners and their association with other congregations.

A Great Meeting.

One of the greatest meetings in the history of the Elliot Avenue M. E. Church of this city is now in progress and has been since New Year's Day. Up to date, thirty-two conversions have been made, and the church has taken place. Sunday will be the fourth quarterly meeting of this conference year. The meeting will close Monday evening with an old time love feast. Sunday in the afternoon communion will be served by the presiding Elder, J. W. Brown of Jefferson City, Mo. The meeting has been conducted by Rev. W. Hill, the pastor, and members and friends are invited to attend.

The Queen's Daughters.

This afternoon at 2:30 the Queen's Daughters of St. John's Parish Society held a very interesting meeting at St. John's. Sixteen and Chestnut streets. The attendance was good. The interesting business before the meeting was the establishment of a parish school. There were a number of persons from other parishes who are interested in this enterprise. The school will undoubtedly be established.

The Lenten Season.

The Lenten season is nearly here. Ash Wednesday is the first day of the forty. The season usually begins early this year, and comes almost at the height of social gaiety, but notwithstanding this fact the sacred fast will undoubtedly be very generally observed in St. Louis. It is expected that Right Rev. Archbishop Kenrick will celebrate mass at the Cathedral on the first day.

Religious Notes.

Father Carmody of Denver is visiting in the city. Father Michael, C. P., goes to Farmington, Mo., to give a mission, commencing the first Sunday in Lent and continuing one week.

Father Shea of St. Kevin's and Mr. Valie Rayburn have been authorized by Archbishop Kenrick to solicit subscriptions for the two new orphan asylums recently authorized by the Orphan Board. The gentlemen report fair progress.

At the Second Presbyterian Church on last Wednesday and again to-morrow evening Dr. Nicolaus and his congregation have and are to hold services preparatory to holy communion on Sunday evening next. The service will be beautifully carried out and an unusually large gathering will undoubtedly be present.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church at Ferguson will give an oyster supper to-morrow evening at the residence of Mrs. Crabbe of that suburb.

Rev. Dr. Irwin, director of the Presbyterian Seminary at St. Charles, Mo., has gone in company with his wife to New Orleans in search of health. The doctor is well known in St. Louis, having at different times occupied various pulpits in this city.

Rev. J. L. Cook is assisting Rev. M. J. Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette Park Baptist Church in a series of special meetings this week. The results have been very satisfactory.

The South St. Louis German Baptist Mission is reported to be in a very prosperous condition and has a fine new church building. They will have to move to new quarters, but as yet no selection has been made. An appeal has been promulgated for funds to build a permanent home for this mission.

Special services were held at the First German Baptist Church every night so far this week among his congregation, and secured the addition of a large number of members. Dr. Herenden came here from the Columbus (O.) Presbytery and took his charge a comparative stranger, but since his arrival he has made himself the savior of the perishing. At 7:30 p. m. his subject will be "The Doctrine of Substitution."

Fourteen lady superintendents of the District W. C. T. U. were invited to lunch by Mrs. F. H. Ingalls Saturday.

At Harlem Place Methodist Episcopal Church Rev. S. Warner will preach in the morning and Rev. Henry Gay at night.

Next Thursday the pupils of the Ursuline Convent will give their annual entertainment for the benefit of the Holy Childhood Association.

Archbishop Kendrick has presented Father Shaw's Church at Farmington, Mo., with beautiful statues of the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph.

The Carondelet Presbyterian Sunday School is preparing to give an entertainment soon.

The interior of St. Augustine's Catholic Church is being completely renovated. The improvements have been made until the church is now practically a new one.

Inventors Interested.

Inventors and patentees are very much interested at this time over the advent of a lawyer in our midst who is every way posted in the law of patent rights. The gentleman in question is Mr. James A. Carr, son of Judge Carr, and his office is located at corner of Broadway and Chestnut street.

A CURIOUS AFFAIR.

The Elopement and Marriage of Howard. Bostwick and Augusta Little.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 28.—In the spring of 1881, Mrs. Gertrude Elliott, the wife of Demas D. Elliott, a prosperous farmer of Dallas Township, deserted her husband and three young daughters and ran away with a Western New York nurseryman named Bostwick. Mrs. Elliott was a good looking country woman 30 years old, and Bostwick, who had been selling trees in the neighborhood, made love to her. Mr. Elliott made no effort to find his faithless wife, but after a while in which she declared she would never return. In due time he got a divorce.

He then married Mrs. Elliott's daughter, Helen, the oldest of Mr. Elliott's daughters, who was 17 years old at the time. Mr. Elliott reared the girls carefully, and when Helen was 18 she was married to William H. Little, a thrifty young farmer. About that time Mr. Elliott died, and his daughter, Mrs. Little, who had two children and that they were living in the neighborhood of Calistoga, Cal. Once in a while she sent her daughter, which they always refused. Mr. Elliott never married again. He died last March and, in June, his runaway wife came East on a steamer, and was accompanied by her son, Howard Bostwick, a fine-looking fellow of 22. Miss Augusta Little, Farmer Little's oldest child, was the sister of the runaway wife. In less than two weeks after the arrival of the young Californian, they were deeply in love when she had farrowed to her lover and he had her in his arms. ## FAN TAN IN NEW YORK.

Mott Street Business Men Ruined by the Chinese Game.

New York, Jan. 30.—One year ago Yung Ming was the envy of all his countrymen on Mott street. He was worth $6,000, earned by hard labor and the savings of his young Italian wife. To-day Yung Ming is almost penniless and is running a peanut stand, barely eking out an existence. Two years ago Yung Ming visited China and got a taste of fan tan which cost him $200. He returned with a suitcase containing $1,700 of his loss. Yung returned to New York and found laborious work and took to gambling again. He was passionately fond of fan tan and lost his money. He was a Chinese national indoor games man's money slipped from his grasp. Yung Ming has had plenty of company in misery. Heavy losses have been made by many Chinese and Americans. Many have failed in business and creditors mourn their departure. Six celestials lost $20,000 between them within a comparatively short time. Fan tan comes high, but the Chinese must have it. Squads of Chinese sports, smoking cigars, stood in front of the gambling houses yesterday morning waiting for the appearance of signals denoting the opening of the game. Fan tan is in full blast again, and the almond-eyed guards in front of the dens on Mott street are vigilant in shutting out unwelcome visitors. Hundreds of Chinamen from Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark and Hoboken visit the dens every Sunday, when the amount handled is said to reach $4,000, of which 25 per cent is net profit to the dealers. Laundry men close up their shops in consequence of losses and new comers take their places only to be drawn into the capital draining vice.

Music in Pawn.

POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Jan. 30.—J. P. Post has disappeared after pawning two pianos and several organs belonging to the Southern Music-house of Cape Girardeau, agents for P. Whitney of Quincy, Ill. Post was an agent for the Cape Girardeau house, and is supposed to be short about $200. Proceeds of a strip for a street by one of the property owners was accepted.

The Board of Public Improvements.

The Board of Public Improvements held two meetings to-day, one at 11 o'clock and one at 2:30. The regular Friday meeting was held in the morning. Sewer Commissioner McMath presented a number of ordinances establishing new sewer districts and providing for building sewers therein.

Commissioner Holman reported that the report of the Heman Construction Co. was the lowest of all bids received for the settling basins contracts and recommended that the award be made accordingly.

The Committee on Public Buildings submitted plans for a new police house and heating plant at the House of Refuge to replace the one destroyed by fire some time ago. The new building and contents will cost $55,000.

The motion made by Maj. Murphy two meetings ago to reconsider the opening of Maple avenue was withdrawn and the dedication of a strip for a street by one of the property owners was accepted.

The board adjourned until 2 o'clock when the opening of sandy streets and alleys was considered and property owners heard.

STOP THAT—NOW BEFORE IT REACHES THE LUNGS

BY THE USE OF THE MOST MARVELOUS COUGH MEDICINE IN THE WORLD,

SCOTT'S EMULSION

THE most stubborn COUGHS or COLDS will yield to its subtle powers when all other remedies have failed. It not only stops the cough but heals the irritation of the throat and lungs and at the same time builds up and fortifies the system against the further inroads of disease. In addition to its almost magical effects in these very prevalent disorders it will positively cure CONSUMPTION in its early stages (when the laws of nature are reasonably observed). Abundant proof of this statement will be furnished if required; and in the latter stages of this most terrible disease it will give comfort and prolong life, and in many cases it has effected cures when physicians had given up all hope. It is very palatable.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—SCOTT'S EMULSION is non-secret, ingredients being given on the label, but they are so scientifically combined that their potency has been wonderfully increased, therefore results are being obtained by its use that, we believe, have never before been obtained by any remedial agent, hence it is prescribed by the medical profession all over the world. ## MILTON NOT MARRIED.

THE RETURN OF BELLE GOLDEN CLEARS YOUNG TOOTLE.

A Peculiar Climax to the St. Joseph Sen- sation—Miss Golden Thought She Had Elop- ed With the Young Millionaire, but Found She Was Mistaken.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 30.—Belle Golden, the 16-year-old country girl, who was alleged to have been secretly married to Milton Tootle, Jr., the young St. Joseph millionaire, has been found by her parents. The girl could be found. Then ex-Deputy James Harvey, a young drug clerk, and a man named Burgess, brought the girl into the police station about 8 o'clock in the evening and her father afterward called for her and took her home. It was learned by Capt. Bloomer of the police force that Harvey had the girl's watch and knew of her whereabouts. The young man, however, refused to give any information where he was returning from his bride tour. It is claimed that the girl was not produced before 9 o'clock in the evening there would be some shooting done.

THE GIRL BROUGHT BACK. At 8 o'clock Harvey and Burgess were at the Police Station with information that the girl was at the door but did not want to come in. She was brought in, however, and her father, who was in waiting at Gill & Casey's, took her home. The girl was brought back to her father's home. The girl was brought back to her father's home. The girl was brought back to her father's home.

The girl had been stopping at Corby's Grove, where she was taken a few days ago by an old man with gray whiskers. The girl was brought back to her father's home. The girl was brought back to her father's home. The girl was brought back to her father's home.

Milton Tootle's friends claim that the outcome of the case is a clear vindication of him and they are now anxious to learn who have been the dupes of the intention of punishing the guilty party. They say that the girl never knew Tootle at all.

That Miss Golden wished to keep her whereabouts a secret from her parents is evidenced by the receipt of a letter by Mr. Golden dated St. Louis, Jan. 29, and postmarked at St. Joseph. This letter was signed by Belle Golden and went on to say that she and Milton Tootle were stopping in St. Louis, but for her father to make no attempt to find her or write to her there, as she expected to go to Milwaukee on Thursday. The writer explained that the letter was delivered to a friend, who would bring it to St. Joseph and mail it. It is also stated that she was having a good time and was happy in her love of her young husband. But Miss Golden made a fatal mistake in regard to the letter. She dated it St. Louis, Jan. 27, and it was postmarked in the Post-office here on the same date. That she desired to deceive her parents is quite evident. The publicity of the young lady's disappearance, and the fact that detectives were searching for her probably caused her lover to induce her to write the letter in the hopes of keeping her whereabouts a secret.

The Contract for the Settling Basins—Other Matters.

PROMISED TO MEET IN ST. LOUIS.

A Peculiar Story Brought Out in the Court of Correction.

Harry R. Sackett, alias William Clifton, alias George Graves, was convicted of petit larceny in the Court of Criminal Correction this morning and was sentenced to serve one year in the Work-house. The defendant was arrested about ten days ago by Detectives Fitzgerald and Freese, who caught him coming out of the furnishing store of Hess & Meisler, 201 North Fourth street.

A search of his person revealed two pairs of fine gloves which had been stolen from a customer. An examination of the prisoner's room disclosed a quantity of cloth which was later identified as having been stolen from the tailoring establishment of Meyer, McNichols & Co., 615 Pine street. Two warrants for petit larceny were issued against the prisoner, who persisted that his name was William Clifton, and that he was the Jefferson City Penitentiary records, however, disclosed that his true name was Harry R. Sackett, under which he was, in February, 1888, convicted at Springfield, Mo., of attempted robbery in the first degree and sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary. In November, 1890, he was pardoned by the Governor on account of good behavior and outside influence.

While Sackett was in jail an attractive young mulatto woman called to see him every visiting day. On the 28th inst. she was arrested by Detectives Fitzgerald and Freese, who had noticed her attentions to the prisoner. The woman insisted that her name was Mary Clifton, and that she was Clifton's legal wife, but the records were brought to light that she, too, was an convict. Her true name was Hagar Battle, and her meeting with Clifton was a result of attempted robbery in the first degree and sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary. The two were taken to Jefferson City together and on the way up promised each other to meet in St. Louis as soon as their respective terms should expire. These promises were kept. The woman on the 27th inst. was sent into the First District Police Court on the charge of vagrancy in associating with thieves and pleaded guilty. She was by Judge Cady fined $50 and given until 9 o'clock that night to get out of the city. Her present whereabouts are not known. Sackett will go to the Work-house at once, the second case of petit larceny against him having been dismissed on condition that he accept sentence in the first without causing additional delay.

THE MICHIGAN CITY PRISON.

Investigation of Gov. Hovey's Charges Against Warden Murdock.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Jan. 30.—The Senate and House legislative committees have made their investigation of the affairs in the State Prison, North. Added interest was manifested in the examination owing to the sensational charges preferred by Gov. Hovey against Warden Murdock, relative to the proper use of earnings of the institution. While no report will likely be made public until it is submitted to the Legislature, it is stated that it will exonerate Murdock. Murdock was examined and showed authority for the expenditures he had made, and the vouchers on hand, together with some $2,000 in the local banks, and accounts for the $40,000 which the Governor charges has been misused.

GOV. HOVEY DISAPPEARED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 30.—Gov. Hovey is disappeared with the manner in which the investigation of Warden Murdock's management of the Michigan City Prison is conducted. He says that the committee has no other purpose than to whitewash the management. He charges ex-State Auditor Bruce Carr with being implicated in Murdock's alleged financial irregularities.

INVADING THE STRIP.

THE MOVEMENT TO OCCUPY THE LANDS IN THE CHEROKEE STRIP.

Account by an Eye Witness of the Preparations of the Boomers—What They Have Done and What They Expect to Do—Moving in Form.

This morning Alvin G. Hartley of Guthrie, O. T., arrived in the city and registered at the Lindell. "I have just come from Caldwell, Kan.," said Mr. Hartley, "and know a good deal of the boomers who are about to invade the Cherokee Strip. I went to the camp and had a talk with a number of my old friends. I feel a great interest in any movement of the kind, as I was with the original Oklahoma boomers of 1880, when under Col. Payne we tried to take possession of the country that is now the Territory of Oklahoma."

THE MEN ENGAGED.

"I was astonished to find how many of the old set are with the present boomers. There are a lot of restless spirits on the frontier who always are engaged in such enterprises, and I was surprised to find how many men had kept up their old habits. The present expedition is not nearly so well organized as the Payne party was, but its members certainly mean business, and unless decisive measures are taken to prevent it before another great mass meeting is held at the best land in the Cherokee strip located. Their claim is that the land is now the property of the United States, part of the public domain and subject to pre-emption and homestead- ing as other parts of the public lands are. They maintain that the Interior Department cannot prevent any being made by frontier settlers, and that the proclamation opening the territory. They intend to go in and take up claims unless forcibly kept out, and as a matter of fact a great many have already crossed the line, and are on the ground now."

NO PREPARATIONS FOR EXPULSION.

"To expel them will prove a very difficult task, unless the military are called in, and from all that I have learned there have been no orders issued to use the troops against the boomers. We who went with Payne were not more difficult, and they hope to keep their positions, until the land is formally opened for settlement, when they will be on the ground, and will have a great advantage over later arrivals. There are a great many citizens of Oklahoma engaged in the movement, as we know by experience that in spite of the great efforts that were made to keep settlers out of the Territory that the best lands were secured by those who disobeyed the orders of the Government, and made entry before the time set. How the invasion of the Cherokee Strip will turn out, cannot yet be told, but unless steps are at once taken to keep out the boomers, the chances are greatly in their favor."

WELL PREPARED.

"There must be fully 500 wagons and several thousand animals. The party that many intend to pursue is to erect buildings at once and make improvements as rapidly as they can, trusting that the United States will not order the removal of the property if it is decided to try and expel them."

"They will not keep closely together, but will scatter, thus making the task of expelling them more difficult, and they hope to keep their positions, until the land is formally opened for settlement, when they will be on the ground, and will have a great advantage over later arrivals. There are a great many citizens of Oklahoma engaged in the movement, as we know by experience that in spite of the great efforts that were made to keep settlers out of the Territory that the best lands were secured by those who disobeyed the orders of the Government, and made entry before the time set. # REAL ESTATE INTERESTS.

CHANGED CONDITIONS WHICH MAKE THE MARKET FIRMER NOW THAN EVER.

An Important Sale of South Eighth Street Property - John Scullin Adds More Ground to His Home Site - Numerous Other Transactions of the Day.

There is undoubtedly more strength in the St. Louis real estate market at the present time than ever before. This comes from the fact that there is but very little property, compared to the numerous large bodies of land offered heretofore, that can be purchased at any price. A year ago the situation was quite different. At that time there were numerous large tracts of land, which were offered for sale. In all of it there were thousands of acres which owners, who held the tracts for a good many years, were anxious to dispose of. Such immense offerings of land tend to make prospective buyers timid. They were inclined to look upon the prospect as a threatening to real estate values. It was feared that so much property thrown upon the market in one season would cause a break in prices. What has since arisen in Tyler place were advertised to be sold at auction in two days many of the ordinarily enthusiastic real estate operators predicted the most gloomy results to follow the forcing of so much property on the market in so short a time. All the ground was readily sold, though, for nearly $1,500,000 without causing a ripple upon the market, and so were nearly all the other large parcels. The tracts that were then held in unbroken bodies by a few persons are now owned in fractional parts of from twenty-five feet upwards by hundreds of people, many of whom have since built upon their purchases. Other portions of these same lands have been subdivided and improved at considerable expense with Telford streets, sewers and grand old walks and a great deal of it has been resold for home sites at $40 to $60 a foot, double and in many cases three times what the ground cost. There has been no weakening of prices. On the contrary, there has been a steady advance in values in every section that has been thrown upon the market. The effect of this has been beneficial in many ways. It has removed these large bodies of land from the market. They can no longer be held up as a menace. The lands have been sold at better prices than the most sanguine owners hoped, and they have seen their purchases sell again at good round profits; substantial public and building improvements have followed and these betterments have stimulated demand for the remaining lots at still higher prices. There being no longer anything for apprehensive purchasers to fear from the offering of an immense surplus of property west of Grand avenue, vacant lots in partially built-up blocks east of that dividing line are appreciated more than ever before, for the character of their excellent street improvements and nearer proximity to the business center, and building sites in this more eastern section are in better demand at much stronger prices than have formerly ruled. Among the most notable transactions difficult to find tracts of ten acres or upwards in extent anywhere within the city limits, which owners are pressing upon the market. It is the buyers now who are trying to push negotiations. They are looking for owners of large parcels who, confident that their best time to sell has not come, are disposed to hold on. Smaller holders appreciate the situation also, and they are demanding higher figures than they would have sold for last fall. This disposition on the part of the smaller owners has been experienced lately in attempts to buy up whole blocks for some large industrial enterprises that are seeking a location in this city. Property of this kind suitable for manufacturing purposes is in strong demand, and it appears to be very hard to get hold of in sufficiently large parcels to meet requirements. It has only been a few days since an average of $1.50 a foot was paid to numerous parties owning there entire blocks of ground in the West End which the grantors bought only last spring at an average of $1 a foot. The purchasers wanted the ground for a plant, and it being better suited for their object than any other land that might have been bought cheaper they were glad to get it at the advanced price.

A HANDSOME RESIDENCE PLACE. John Scullin, who purchased the Covenant Mutual Life Insurance Co. property, numbered 328 South Broadway, between E. and Eichelberger streets near Carondelet, on Sept. 17, last, for $25,000, has bought another large piece of ground adjoining those premises, where the residence is to be built. The ground he bought from the company, together with his residence, has a frontage of 420 feet by a depth of 300 on the west side of Broadway, and is bounded on the north by the new secured from George H. Sauer, through F. W. Mott & Co.'s agency, a frontage of 90 feet on Broadway by a depth of 400, extending to the Mississippi River. This gives Mr. Scullin a Broadway frontage of 500 feet on the river bluff at one of the best places for observation anywhere about the city. From his elevated expansive view of the American bottoms may be obtained clear of obstruction to the Illinois bluffs, nearly ten miles distant, while steamboats plying the Mississippi may be seen fifteen miles up or down stream. Mr. Scullin is now having the old building renovated at an expense, it is said, of $14,000. Mr. Mott says $4,800 was the consideration Mr. Sauer got for his ground.

MRS. FEUGNET'S $14,000 PURCHASE. The tenement property embracing one two-story and a four-story building, numbered 304 and 306 South Eighth street, between Clark and Spruce streets, has been sold, by the firm of T. S. Noonan & Bro., for $14,000 to Mrs. Virginia S. Feugnet, who contemplates tearing away the old structures and erecting a modern warehouse building in the place of them. This improvement, however, is not likely to be made until next year. The premises, owned by the Peabody Real Estate & Investment Co., of which Henry Sayers is President, were purchased last July for $12,000. The lot has a frontage of forty feet by a depth of 127 1/2 and the houses on it are now producing a rental of $10 a month; sufficient to defray all expenses until Mrs. Feugnet gets ready to build. With the exception of this transfer there has been no noteworthy sale of South Eighth street property in a long time.

ON BELL AND ON CABANNE AVENUES. The firm of Nelson & Morsman report the following sales for the Mount Cabanne Realty Co., a corporation in which Samuel Kennard is a guiding spirit. Bell avenue—Southwest corner of Arlington, 100x170 feet, for $8,500, to Frank Clark, who is going to build a $5,000 residence there. Cabanne avenue—South side, about 250 feet west of King's highway; 100x150 feet of ground, at $34 a foot, to Algernon S. Sayle, who bought ground below grade. Morgan street—North side about 250 feet west of King's highway, a 20x170-foot lot at $34.80 a foot, to A. H. Kohlmeier, represented in the transaction by C. C. Nichols. In addition to this Nelson & Morsman also report the sale of a 20x170-foot lot situated on the west side of Laffin street, south of North Market, at $30 a foot, to Sylvester Lebeau, who will build a six-room dwelling upon the site.

OTHER SALES. The Bayard-Hamilton Real Estate Co. reports the following sales: John avenue—No. 2006, a six-room frame house and 25x135 feet lot for $2,350 from Chas. W. Nugent to Wm. and Jas. Plank. Corn place—North side about 200 feet north of Easton avenue, a 40x140-foot lot at $30 a foot lot from Walter S. Gregory to Joseph Klein. Terry & Scott sold for the St. Louis Property & Financial Co., 100x170 feet of ground situated ated on the south side of Paffson avenue between Cooper and Edwards streets, north-west of Reber place at $8 a foot to Richard L. Lass. There are no improvements in the locality. The property sold was purchased with several hundred feet more by the grantors last spring at $4 a foot.

A KNOTTY PROBLEM FOR COMMISSIONERS. Charles H. Bradley, Julius Pitzman and Paulaski Landfill are serving as commissioners to divide the interests of John G. and John A. Schuetz, M. R. Collins and W. P. Hill, who own the block of ground located between McPherson and Lindell avenues, Sarah street and Vandeventer avenue. A satisfactory division of the property between Mr. Collins and the Schuetzes has been accomplished, but the commissioners failed to agree in their allotment to Mr. Hill. Two of the commissioners advocate a sale to settle this side of the question, but Mr. Bradley is going to submit a minority report, in which he will make it appear that such a proceeding would be unfair to the Schuetzes, as Mr. Hill could afford to pay a great more for the property than anyone else for the reason that he owns a practically valueless narrow triangular piece of ground fronting on Lindell avenue and adjoining the south end of the property in dispute. As it is now this little triangular strip on Lindell avenue is too small to be built upon of itself, but added to sufficient ground for a residence site in the rear this Lindell avenue front would readily sell at $100 a foot. The property in dispute, adjoining the Lindell avenue front, has a frontage on the south side of McPherson avenue, the depth from one street to the other being ample for two fine residences, whereas with the McPherson avenue front alone the ground would have but one building front.

THE RACE PROBLEM. A Bureau for the Information of the Colored People.

M. F. Alex. Easton, who in 1888 organized the Independent Information Bureau, has in mind the formation of a permanent bureau on the same principle in this city. Easton is President of the Colored Club of Independent Voters in this city, with a total membership of 9,000. He believes that the negro derives no benefit from blindly following the lead of Republican politicians, and therefore he proposes to divide his race between the two great parties, thinking thereby to gain recognition at least to a greater degree than at present. He proposes to call his school the Colored Democratic and Independent Bureau of Oratory, and intends to send speakers throughout the country to teach the doctrines of tariff reform and honest government. In regard to the force bill Easton says: "What the colored voter needs to be shown is the sad mistake the Republican party is making respecting his race. He needs to know that the force bill is a sugar-coated delusion. The idea that the bill to pass it is being made in the interests of the colored voters is a ridiculous notion. It is a huge joke. The passage of the bill would be inimical to the best interests of the country, and would at once dump upon an already tax-ridden and overburdened army of political sap-suckers aggregating 400,000 men, and their salaries would amount to the enormous sum of $17,216,000. This sum would be paid to an idle class of men, who would be paid at a cost of $100,000, with an endowment of $145,944 in every judicial district in the United States."

DODSON'S DELUSION. A Man Who Thinks He Was Robbed by the St. Louis Police.

A telegram from Kansas City announces the arrest of a man giving his name as G. P. Dodson, who was found wandering about in the bottoms near the Union Depot in that city yesterday morning. The stranger gave his address as Gregory, Wayne County, Ky., and stated that he was on his way to visit a brother in Elk City, Kan. One of his insane vagaries was that while passing through St. Louis he had been robbed by a brother in the name of the Police Department. Sergt. Munding of the Union Depot remembers the man. He first noticed the fellow about 7 o'clock on Wednesday evening, shortly after the arrival of the O. & M., when his attention was called to a wild-eyed stranger who hurriedly eluded his way through the crowd. As soon as he caught sight of the bluecoat he stopped and excitedly told that a man was following him with a knife. The fellow persisted in going up town and buying a revolver, but was restrained. He gave his name as Dodson, but said he was from Burnside, Ky., and was called to Elk City, Kan., by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his sister. When he became quiet he went with the Sergeant to purchase a ticket for Kansas City and displayed a large roll of bills. The telegram states, however, that $180 was found on his person. When the Chicago & Alton train pulled out Dodson was on board and seemed perfectly sane. No stock is taken in his story by the St. Louis department.

Fined for Selling Beer on a Boat. William H. Gibbons has been doing a retail beer business on a small scale at the foot of Angell street. Last night Officer Stunkel stepped aboard Gibbons' little craft and took a drink, but his violation of the police regulations in that regard will doubtless be overlooked when it is known that the efficient officer was working that the ends of justice might be served. This morning Judge Anderson had Mr. Gibbons before him and fined him $50, although the defendant pleaded that he had governmental authority to sell beer on the river at any point between Grafton, Ill., and St. Louis.
